ANYWHERE FESTIVAL

On Saturday morning we put on our creative hats and painted canvases with paint pens, made paper chains and heaps of paper bows. Fun was had in the kitchen too with the baking of heart shaped birthday cakes and yummy chocolate caramel slice. After lunch we travelled to Strathpine for 2 performances at the Anywhere Festival. Our favourite session was "Fully Made Up". Described as a random and ridiculous improvised musical comedy with Jenny Wynter, we found it engaging and very funny.

GLAM SQUAD

On Sunday, we embraced our creative selves and followed a youtube tutorial to create our glam look! We all had our own LED lit mirror to use and a makeup kit (that we got to take home!) and we spent hours experimenting with different looks and colours. When we were happy with our finished look, we used the RWL phone to take selfies against a galaxy backdrop. Next time we plan to include hair styles and maybe some dress up items too!

Have you checked out our website lately?

James, our tech guru (who also has the job of approving new apps and games that we want to install), has recently given the RWL website a complete makeover, which is quite fitting with our weekend theme! We'd love you to have a look around and as always, we value any feedback!
