We all embraced creativity this weekend and the possibilities were endless! We were super excited to make a birthday cake for Laura to celebrate with her on Sunday and we loved having a go at some sparkle gem art magnets, as well as the constant favourite of the posca paint pens!

DAY OUT AT GOMA

On Saturday we headed into the theatre at GOMA to watch “The Wishmas Tree” which was a short Australian made animation featuring a young Ringtail Possum. Her misguided wish for a white Wishmas at the magical Wishmas Tree not only freezes her entire hometown of Sanctuary City, but also threatens the lives of all who live there.

After the movie, we enjoyed exploring the new exhibits at GOMA, especially the interactive tessellating shapes!

MAKEOVER MADNESS

Our makeup session was so popular recently that we decided to give it another go but add some extra features like dress ups and photo props! We played the Eras Tour in the background which was fun to sing along to when our favourite song came on, and we loved trying the different outfits on, from formal gowns, bridesmaid dresses and some funky sparkly pieces that we wouldn't usually wear!

School holidays are here!

We hope everyone enjoys a chance to rest and recharge over the next two weeks! We do still have some spaces available if you'd like to add respite to your calendar. We can't wait to hear about everyone's adventures, even if it's just not having to set the dreaded morning alarms!
